Since the Journal Metalurgija is prestigious and recognized for election of scientific titles in the whole world, the Editorial Board of the journal receives continuously a number of articles of varied quality form more then thirty countries.

Although all articles are reviewed (1 - 3 times) as to better quality and optimal choice of articles for printing, Managing oard of Croatian Metallurgical Society has made that all articles delivered for printing in the journal Metalurgija should, bseides written reviews, be also defended in public on international symposium of Croatian Metallurgical Society under the condition valid for the participating on the symposium - pay the Participation fee.

DECISION

(See <http://pubwww.srce.hr/metalurg>).

Authors themselves decide on their wishes. The decision comes into force immediately.

The President of
Croatian Metallurgical Society
Prof. D. Sc. Ilija Mamuzić
